President Swanson stated, "Thank you very much. We start our meetings with presentations on occasion, and tonight, our speaker will be introduced by Mr. Jackson, who is joining us here in chambers. Mr. Jackson, the floor is yours."

Mr. Jackson stated, "Hello everyone. Over the last few months, and over the last few years, you've heard me talk a lot about the role of conservations, how it's a critical component and one of the main things that we do for the modern zoo. So, we have joining us tonight, Dr. Daniel Hilliard from the Zoo Conservation Outreach Group, or ZCOG, who is one of our primary partners in our endeavors in conservation. Particularly of, conservation in the field. So, I turn it over to Dr. Hilliard."

Dr. Hilliard stated, "Thank you, Lee. Thank you for the introduction. It's been a very interesting evening. I'm glad I've had the opportunity to witness county government in action. So, I thank you for that. I'm also hoping that this is an appropriate forum to give this presentation. I do have about 10 min presentation. Hopefully, we'll go through this as quickly as possible because I respect all of the work you're doing for your community. Again, I'm being very sincere when I say it's been a pleasure to witness your work of local community members and elected officials in action. So, thank you."

Dr. Hilliard began his presentation, "I can see that on the screen now, thank you very much. Again, my name is Daniel Hilliard, I am the Director of the Zoo Conservation Outreach Group. Thank you for having me here tonight. We have a long history of working with Niabi Zoo and I've got a quick little agenda for you. On the top, a little bit of the background and the mission of the organization, the Guiding Principles that the group follows, discuss briefly the change in conservation landscape of animals and habitats, for recovery, protection, and conservation, give a quick overview of our programming and how Niabi Zoo is involved, and then hopefully we'll have some questions or discussion if there's time for that. There are, embedded in here, some videos as well. I hope those convey on your screens. So, first of all, ZCOG is a coalition of zoos, aquariums, and related partners that is dedicated to promoting wildlife and habitat conservation throughout the Americas. That goes from the Arctic Circle, all the way to Tierra del Fuego in South America. Our focus is in Latin America. We do our work by providing opportunities for professional development for our colleagues in the region and then providing direct tactical material and financial assistance to active, as Lee said, active programs in field conservation. The Organization has been a 501(c)(3) since 1991. We are currently headquartered in the offices of the Association of Zoos and Aquariums in Silver Spring, Maryland. We have been a conservation partner with that association since 1998. We're overseen by a 15-member Board of Directors. Here, you'll see 14 of them. One, the organization has not yet been approved by vote, and will be so, hopefully in our June Retreat that will happen in Louisville, Kentucky. So, the guiding principles of the organization is, we look to pursue wildlife and habitat conservation through collaborative measures. Utilizing the diversity of stakeholders and actors, particularly in Range Country Partners throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. We provide long-term support or product conservation programs. We don't like to do grants. We like to invest for the long term because it yields a better impact and conservation result. We are investing in people as well, because conservation is not just about wildlife, it's about people. So, we're investing in people through capacity building, providing scholarships to training programs here in the United States. We identify particularly young professionals and bring them to the United States so that they can train in week-long courses that are usually run by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums, or by some of their adjacent groups. Finally, we serve as an incubator for new additions, which is some of our most exciting work that we do. The conservation landscape itself, throughout the globe has been shifting, particularly over the last decade or so, and how zoological facilities are supporting these efforts. It's become a much more collaborative and stakeholder-driven approach, integrating people and communities into the conversation and giving them a voice to a lot of their natural patrimony, and how work is done in the field to protect, recover, and conserve wildlife. A lot of the work now is very strategic in approach. It's transparent and accountable. Reporting is done, usually, on a biannual basis, but certainly on an annual basis in some countries. The AZA Community itself, that's the Association of Zoos and Aquariums, which is the major accrediting body in North America, is aligning all of its resources under the SAFE brand, which is the Saving Animals From Extinction program. There's an icon here about the framework, that explains how the program works. Currently, there are 52 species-based programs of AZA; of that, ZCOG currently manages 3 of those. (inaudible) of that space. We were an adopter, an early adopter, of the Safe Species Program model, because quite frankly, it fit our Guiding Principles. We have been a conservation partner of the AZA for well over a decade, and it made just a lot of sense. It was also a great opportunity for us to address, what oftentimes, has been the underrepresentation of species from the Americas. Not only within collections of zoos and aquariums, but particularly in the conservation programs and recovery programs of these species, not only in Latin America currently, but also here in the United States. Finally, we were sitting in an ideal position to provide leadership and management experience for these programs. We had over 30 years of experience in working with Partner Country colleagues throughout the region, had developed a well-defined sense of cultural understanding, language fluency, and member resources that we had been able to deliver to the region for that time. So, we had a long-term relationship and partnerships that we could rely upon to promote these Safe Species programs. Currently, we are the program leader of 3 species. One, for Short Tailed Chinchillas, which is a critically endangered species in Chile, the Andean Highland Flamingos, also threatened and endangered in Chile, and the Maned Wolf, which you'll find throughout Brazil, Argentina, and Paraguay. There are 2 other programs that we do not lead, but we are partners with. That is the Spectacled Bear Program, and also the Jaguar Program. So, with respect to save the Andean Highland Flamingo, all of our program objectives and actions support the Chilean Ministry of the Environment's Flamingo Conservation Recovery Plan. Our program is also part of Chile's National Bird Strategy for Conservation. All of our program focus-the majority of our program focus, is centered on satellite monitoring for these species. So, we have teams of experts who go out into the field, capture and tag these birds with satellite transmitters that are about the size of a matchbook, and it is being done to help us identify priority habitat for species conservation so that we can protect and conserve the areas where they feed, breed, and nest. Most importantly, these areas are under threat by lithium mining. So, any cell phone, laptop, iPad that you'll find, is powered by lithium, and in order to move from a MacArthur-based economy, to a Global Carbon-based economy, to a more environmentally-friendly economy, we need to be mining more lithium. So, it's a very complicated issue. So, if these birds are to be protected, we need to better understand the relationship with the habitat and also with the mining sector. One of the exciting things about this program is, it's the first ever time in science that a Chilean Flamingo had been tagged with a satellite transmitter and monitored across time and space. It received a lot of domestic press in Chile, but also International, picked up by the AP and Reuters. We work with local communities for education and stakeholder programming, so that the future generations have a greater appreciation of their wildlife, particularly with these flamingos. There are Flamingo Guardian Ambassador Programs that we undertake with K-12 schools that are within the range of these species, so, local communities. For many of them, it's the first time they've ever been able to see these birds in the wild. We've also developed interpretive signage within the national parks so that children, and the park guards, and the local indigenous communities can have their voices heard and have the importance of these birds represented in a way that would be culturally sensitive, but also that conveys the information to international visitors that are visiting the park. Here's a quick little video about the overview of the program."

(Note Video plays in Spanish, no translation available)

Dr. Hilliard continues, "The resources for that work comes from the AZA community. ZCOG serves as the organizer, the logistics manager, the dedicated fund, and again, it's a member-driven program. The labor, the man hours-or person hours, are from our Range Country partners. So, we provide the support, the technical, the financial, the materials support, and they conduct the research and the studies to protect and study these birds. We also do the same with the SAFE Chinchilla program. Again, its objectives and actions are in-line with what's called the, 'Plan Recoge', which is the Plan for the Recovery and Conservation of this species, that was approved by the Chilean National Congress. We're focusing on Short-Tails in Chile Colony identification and monitoring. It is a critically endangered species, in danger of going extinct. Its number one threat, like the Highland Flamingos, is mining. It's not lithium mining in this case. It's heavy metals and gold, in particular. These are resources that are critically needed by the global economy, but there has to be a middle ground so that we can better live together, so that this species won't go extinct. Here's a quick little Range Country map of where a lot of the work is done. Again, this is also part of the Lithium Triangle, where lithium is mined, and it also happens to be the number one mining sector in Chile, which is a major driver of their economy. It's the number one export that helps fund social programs in Chile. So again, it's a complicated issue that deserves attention, but if we are to save the chinchilla, and again, here's an example, the first photographic evidence, thanks to our program research, this is the first time the species has been photographed in an area where it had been declared extinct for over 20 years. So, we're very happy and very pleased about some of the work we're doing here. Again, to highlight the importance of the species and to make it relevant for all of us, not just those in Chile and the region, but also here in the United States, there is work that we can do collectively and collaboratively to help protect wildlife, while also conducting the necessary economic business to fuel our economies. We have worked with local school children to promote the importance of this species to develop programs, along with local communities, so we can appreciate local wildlife and learn more about it. For many folks, it's the first opportunity that they've had to go out in the field and experience what would be the equivalent of a field trip, that when I was a child, I had access to in the woods of New Hampshire. We develop all kinds of materials for educational materials and programming for them, that they use in their schools, of course translated into Spanish. Here's a quick overview of this education program, which is a pilot program last year, we're really proud of the results."

(Note Video plays in Spanish, no translation available)

Dr. Hilliard continues, "Developing that conservation awareness, not only among the youth, but also different age groups throughout communities, is key to conservation so that we can have that buy-in from local communities. So, they not only have an awareness, but also an appreciation for their natural habitat. Oftentimes, their daily lives don't allow them to get out into the fields to partake in nature. Again, many of us have had the same issues, but we're providing those opportunities and integrating it into a comprehensive conservation and recovery program for critically endangered species. In the past two cases, we show that our Range Country partner was the National Zoo of Chile. Here, it's the Fundacion Temaiken, which is also an AZA accredited facility, it's in Argentina. The SAFE Maned Wolf, it's more like a large fox than a wolf per say, but it is a species threatened to extinction principally, from the overextension of agriculture and its mechanization and industrialization throughout the Pampas Grasslands of Argentina. Such so, that the wolves are now redistributing to areas in small cities, even on the outskirts of the suburban Buenos Aires, which is one of the largest cities in Latin America. So, our program objectives again, are linked directly with a national program that is developed by the Argentines. All of the SAFE Species programs need to be linked with another country's, or international body's, previously existing recovery plan. All of our objectives and actions are based on collaborating and helping other countries achieve their goals. Our focus here, is on long-term monitoring and study of this animal. Again, using GPS satellite technology, the Fundacion Temaiken is involved in rescue, rehabilitation, and release of these animals back to the wild. They have done such a great job lobbying the Argentine Government. Now, anytime one of these wolves is rescued after it is hit by a car, or confiscated as an inappropriate pet, they need to have a satellite call so that we can collect the data to better understand how they're now distributing themselves throughout the range in Argentina, with the pressure on a changing landscape. Again, we also are involved- we also help support, the education and stake-holder engagement activities, which are key to the species survival. This program is the first SAFE Species program to be pulled in by a non-US, AZA accredited member. So again, the Fundacion Temaiken, which has its own zoological facility, first-rate, is the one AZA accredited facility that is located within the geographical range of this species. ZCOG and Fundacion Temaiken have had a 10-year relationship, a collaborative relationship, much like we've had a multi-decade relationship with the National Zoo of Chile, so it allows for us to work, sort of seamlessly, on the conservation and the recovery of this species. I have another quick video for you, to show how the (inaudible) work has been done and been supported by ZCOG and the community."

(Note Video plays in Spanish, no translation available)

Dr. Hilliard continues, "Based on the 3 SAFE Species programs that ZCOG leads, we've invested, with community support and financial support, hundreds of thousands of dollars for conservation of these 3 species. We've achieved impressive results so far and we're very proud of these relationships that we developed, and have become a key member of the AZA community. The second part of our mission is equally important. Many of the individuals that you saw in those videos have received passive support for training through our scholarship program. With that scholarship program, which focuses on early-career professionals, we provide access to training opportunities, and have become the single largest supporter of professional development capacity-building, not only for Latin Americans and their community, but we are the single largest provider for scholarships for AZA's professional training program courses, and have been so, for the better part of 2 decades. Over 160 scholarships have been rewarded, not including the ten that we will be able to award in 2025. Over a half a million dollars invested in, again, in people. Investing in people, because we're the ones that need to be doing the work for recovery and conservation of threatened species throughout our landscape. I think many of you have probably seen some of the episodes of Tom Hanks in 'The Americas'. This hemisphere is majestic, and the species and the habitats that are part of it, need to be protected. So, we're investing not only in wildlife conservation, but in individuals and in their careers, so that they can become future champions for wildlife habitat conservation. They come from a wide range of backgrounds. I've got a couple of quick 40 second interviews, of two recent recipients and how they view their training opportunity."

(Note Video plays in Spanish, no translation available)

Dr. Hilliard continues, "We're providing the tools and the training for these individuals so that they can help conserve and protect the wildlife in their natural patrimony. We have a portfolio of scholarships that range anywhere from 10-15 per year. The Cameron Park Zoo Amphibian Conservation Scholarship is just one of them. The second one here-oh, and another thing is, it's probably worth mentioning very quickly, is that although his video was done in Spanish language, they need to speak English to be able to train here in the United States. So, that's one of the qualifications, or the criteria, that is required. Here is the second individual from the La Aurora Zoo in Guatemala, who attended a course last year."

The video begins, "Hello everyone, my name is Jose Teo and I am the Zoo Nutritionist here at the La Aurora Zoo in Guatemala, and today I want to thank the Zoo Conservation Outreach Group and Greenville Zoo for providing me the Environmental Enrichment Scholarship. It gave me the opportunity to attend one of the AZA Training Professional Courses, the Environmental Enrichment in Zoos and Aquariums class, at Disney Animal Kingdom. That course gave me the opportunity to learn more about the animal needs and how to create enrichments that promote the animals' psychological health. So, I want to thank the Zoo Conservation Outreach Group and the Greenville Zoo for providing me and my institution these amazing courses that will help us conserve all of the animals that we have. Thank you very much."

Dr. Hilliard continues, "By providing these opportunities they become better caretakers in animal management, animal welfare, veterinary medicine, and education programs within their own zoos, within their own countries. By focusing on zoos and aquariums, in these Range Country Partners throughout Latin America and the Caribbean, we're raising the standards throughout all of the Americas because if one zoological facility receives critiques, or criticisms, or international denunciations, it affects all of us in the community. So, this is an opportunity for us to lift all those together and really provide the tools and training that these individuals need to help them manage a modern zoological facility and care for the species that are within their collections. I want to thank the County Commission tonight, thank you so much for allowing and providing me the opportunity to speak. It was a fascinating meeting and I'm grateful for that opportunity. I want to thank Niabi Zoo and Lee Jackson, especially. Niabi Zoo has been a Program Partner with ZCOG since 2011, a Board Member Institution since 2012, and Lee has been an active board member since that time, also serving as a SAFE Animal Advisor for Paraguay, he's the Paraguay expert, and we appreciate the insight and expertise that he brings to our program."

President Swanson stated, "Thank you very much Dr. Hilliard, we're so grateful. That was a very thorough presentation and I have Dr. Moreno here who has a question."

Commissioner L. Moreno asked, "I have a question for you. In the last video, you reference the Maned Fox, the gentleman actually referred to it as a 'large fox' rather than the Maned Wolf. I was just wondering, do they...is it referred to as...?"

Dr. Hilliard answered, "Technically it's neither a fox nor a wolf, it's its own species. I don't have the Latin name, but it's neither a fox nor a wolf. It's known locally, here in The States, as the Maned Wolf. In Argentina, well, in parts of its range, it's known as a 'Lobo de Crin', which is again, a wolf, 'lobo' is wolf. But in Argentina, it's called 'Agiara Guazu' which is a Tupi-Guarani word for 'Maned Wolf'. But technically, not a wolf nor a fox. I think the translation was done just so that we would understand it in English."

Commissioner L. Moreno stated, "He verbally said it was a 'Zorro Grande'."

Dr. Hilliard responded, "Yeah, Zorro Grande, which would be 'Big Fox'. Right, exactly."

President Swanson stated, "Thank you Dr. Moreno. Any other questions for our guest? Well, I really want to appreciate you taking the time to be with us tonight, and I also want to thank you for shining light under Lee Jackson's leadership. Our zoo certainly has certainly stepped into a global arena of work, and conservation, and restoration, and species preservation. Thank you for the partnership."

Dr. Hilliard stated, "We appreciate the partnership, we appreciate the support, and we are grateful for Lee's leadership. Thank you."

President Swanson stated, "Alright, and next time you're in town, come see us in person."

Dr. Hilliard stated, "I look forward to it."

President Swanson stated, "Thank you, Dr. Hilliard."

2. Commissioner L. Moreno moved to approve the April Commission minutes, as presented. Commissioner McNeil seconded.

A voice vote was taken.

Motion carried.

3. PUBLIC COMMENTS - (NONE) (Three calls were made.)
4. PRESIDENTS COMMENTS:

President Swanson stated, "Under the President's Comments, a couple things to share with you. As you may have noticed, until sometime today, we've had a streak of dry weather and that has been frustrating for some gardeners, but it's been very good for our staffs. The preserves have been busy doing a lot of update work as quickly as they could. It looks like, even with the rain, the holiday weekend is going to be very nice. We expect we'll have a lot of people coming out and enjoying our preserves. If you haven't noticed, Niabi has a smaller species of otters that you can now enjoy. It's very interactive in the Biodiversity Hall. As mentioned in the executive committee last week, if you have not started following Niabi Zoo's social media pages, primarily on Facebook, you should do so because it's a great way to find out about all the great stuff that's going on out at Niabi. That's going to do it for President's Comments for now."

Commissioner Brunk stated, "Thank you Mr. President. I just wanted to call out, a couple of weekends ago, I was at Niabi with my youngest grandson's Cub Scout Pack. We actually went through a Conservation Workshop with Joel, the curator of Conservation and Education, and his team. I just wanted to say that they did a wonderful job, not only with the kids, but with the parents and grandparents that attended as well. So, I just wanted to give that shout-out, a great job from the team out there."

President Swanson stated, "It really is great to get out there, either on your own, or with kids, if you don't have any, I've got some grandkids that I can rent you for a weekend. Thank you very much Mr., Brunk, I appreciate that."

Commissioner Simmer stated, "I'll have another zoo member shortly, my daughter just had her third, so I'm again a grandfather, I just wanted to tell you guys. She's doing great, and my wife delivered her. So, it's (inaudible)."

President Swanson stated, "Well congratulations Grandpa."

Commissioner Westpfahl stated, "I've got one comment on your 25-minute presentation you had. I'm probably the only one that feels this way, but the mind can only absorb what the ass can endure, and that's just too damn long. It's ridiculous."

Commissioner Moreno stated, "I'm appreciative of all the information that was provided, that was very fascinating to me, and I appreciate the time to be with us, and it was a lot of information. I loved it. Thank you very much."

President Swanson stated, "I appreciate you Dr. Moreno. Any further questions or discussion on this? I will note, one reason to have these presentations, there's some public conversation going on in the community about an Economic Development Project that will actually help to fund habitat restoration. If you listen carefully to what Dr. Hilliard is telling us, he's telling us you don't just turn land over (inaudible) and see what happens. Because all you do, is get invasive species and you don't get any threatened or endangered species of animals coming back. What we've done at Illiniwek, is we've been very careful and scientific about very carefully managing the habitat. By doing that, we've brought back, to my latest count, 5 species that are threatened, or endangered, or once native to our area that have left, and have now come back. It's not because we stopped mowing. It's because we invested, and presentations like we had tonight help us understand the importance of investment, in making these wonderful stories possible. So, I thank you for that."

11. Commissioner Adams moved to approve all Routine Reports from the Director and Departments Heads of the Forest Preserve Commission, as presented. Commissioner Mielke seconded.

A voice vote was taken.

Motion carried.

President Swanson stated, "The next meeting of this Commission will be Tuesday, June 17th, 2025, in these Chambers, following the County Board meeting. Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for your service, we are adjourned."

President Swanson declared the Forest Preserve Meeting adjourned at 7:34 pm.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

KAREN KINNEY
COUNTY CLERK AND SECRETARY
OF THE FOREST PRESERVE COMMISSION

Actuarial Service Proposals for Other Post-Employment Benefits (OPEB)

The District sought proposals for actuarial services to complete the Other Post-Employment Benefits reporting. This reporting is a GASB requirement and reporting is utilized in the District annual financial statements. In the previous two year's the District has utilized the services of USI Consulting Group and the fee associated with the annual reporting totaled $12,400 for FY 23 & 24 or two-year period. A notice was place in the Dispatch/Argus on May 16, 2025. Proposals were to be submitted no later than close of business on June 6, 2025. The District received four proposals for actuarial services and the list of firms with their location and fees associated are as follows:

Lauterbach & Amen, LLP, Naperville, IL

FY 25-$4,670, FY 26-$1,710, FY 27-$4,950, FY 28-$1,820

Total $13,150

Nyhart, Indianapolis, IN

FY 25-$4,300, FY 26-$2,100, FY 27-$4,600, FY 28-$2,200

Total $13,200

(Additional fees would be assigned if required to breakdown results into groups, for two groups there would be an additional 10%, then 1% for each additional group)

PRM Consulting Group, Rockville, MD

FY 25-$6,000, FY 26-$3,090, FY 27-$6,365, FY 28-$3,278

Total $18,733

USI Consulting Group, Brentwood, TN

FY 25-$6,600, FY 26-$4,800, FY 27-$7,000, FY 28-$5,100

Total $23,500

Ms. Palmer, Ms. Van Daele and I reviewed the four proposals and evaluated them on their experience (especially with Illinois units of government), ability to complete the valuation within the time frame requested in the RFP, and cost. The group focused on cost and spent the review looking through mainly the proposals from Lauterbach & Amen, LLP and Nyhart since there was only a $50 difference in fees over a four-year period. There were no substantive issues in which would disqualify any of the proposals submitted. Both Lauterbach & Amen, LLP and Nyhart had multiple references and had the most prior work experience with units of government in Illinois. It should be noted that Lauterbach & Amen, LLP is a vendor of Rock Island County currently. All of the firms had ample amounts of experience with their actuarial teams. Nyhart proposed a detailed timeline to complete the services in 8 weeks and Lauterbach & Amen, LLP outline was 8-10 weeks. Both firms noted that the timeline would vary as it is dependent on the District providing the required information in a timely manner throughout the process of developing the reporting requested. The recommendation is to accept the most cost-effective proposal from Lauterbach & Amen, LLP.

May was a pretty good month for Indian Bluff. It did not live up to the lofty round numbers that were put up in 2023. However, this year we had 4 days in May effected by weather. In 2023 we had no days effected by weather. The weather was cooler than normal for a lot of the month, including Memorial Day weekend which limited play a little bit. When the weather was good the golf course was very very busy. Year to date we are still about 575 rounds short of last season, revenue is about $9,000 ahead of last season. Last season we opened a full month ahead of this season, and we started the season over 1,000 rounds behind 2024. So we are quickly eroding the deficit, and money has already started to run ahead of last season. Prices went up in 2025, however, the price per round is up almost $5 per round from last year and prices only increased $2-$3.

Overall, the numbers remain very good, and golf in general continues to have numbers that are equal to or better than the pandemic years. We have managed to this point to keep all of the gains made during the pandemic.

League play at the golf course got started in Late April and early May. All of the leagues from 2024 have returned, except for a very small league on Tuesday afternoon. Most of the league numbers are similar to last seasons, with some leagues growing and some getting smaller numbers.

Staff has remained busy with the day to day duties of keeping the daily duties of the clubhouse, especially as business picked up much earlier than normal. We had no golf outings in the month of May, Outings really get underway once June begins.

Once we get into the month of June, we will get off to a fast start with Putts 4 Mutts and Steve's Old Time Tap having golf outings the first weekend. We have the Edgewood Baptist Church outing later in the month. As has been the case the last couple of years, many of the non outing Saturdays outperformed the outing Saturdays in both play and revenue.

The new fleet of golf carts arrived during the month of May. The old cart have been traded in or set aside to go to the respective parks that need them .

Report to Forest Preserve Committee

Name of Park Illiniwek

For the Month of May 2025

Grounds Maintenance performed— Staff continues to mow Illiniwek and Dorrance on a weekly basis. Staff has also been mowing and weed eating around the parking lots at Amowa every other week. The silt fence at Amowa west around the parking lot was removed due to establishment of vegetation preventing erosion. The chipper was borrowed from the zoo to chip up the trees and bushes that were cut down on the hillside behind D1 at Dorrance. Staff sprayed mowed and sprayed ½ of the pavilion prairie in order to reseed this spring. The prairie failed due to flood waters 2 years ago. Staff also sprayed 2 acres at Amowa east for the second time to prep for seeding. Both plots were planted with prairie seed in late May. Staff mowed with the forestry mulcher along the railroad tracks through Illiniwek to try and eliminate poison hemlock from spreading. The forestry mulcher was also used to remove trees in the ball diamond prairie. Staff planted 20 trees at Illiniwek to replace trees that have died in two of the tree plantation areas. 100 prairie plugs were also planted in the ball diamond prairie to diversify plant species in that plot. Due to dry weather staff has been watering the trees and prairie plugs twice a week.

Building Maintenance projects performed—Staff has been replacing bulbs in the shower buildings as needed.

Equipment repairs and/or project performed— The John Deere 997 went into the shop due to low power and stalling out. The injector computer was replaced a second time and a bare wire was causing a short in the computer. The skidsteer went in for the 100 hour service. The backup camera was replaced under warranty.

Trails/General facility conditions—The trails at Illiniwek, Dorrance, and Amowa are in good shape.

Trails/Course/General facility conditions--The park as a whole is looking great. Trails were closed to horses and bikes due to wet conditions as needed.

Vandalism report— I have no vandalism to report for the month of May2025.

Incidents--I have no incidents to report for the month of May 2025.

Accidents reports--I have no accidents to report for the month of May 2025.

Weather conditions—The month of May we received quite a bit of rain and very nice seasonal weather temps.

Activities/Events/Outings held at park— Loud Thunder hosted a few graduation parties and one family reunion.

This camping season has started off very windy in comparison to other years. The high winds have definitely detoured tent campers from coming out and staying the night with us. RV campers, on the other hand, are still coming out in good numbers and are not the least bit concerned by the odd weather we have been experiencing. Memorial Day weekend was a bit success here as we rented very camping site that we offer that weekend. Heavy rains leading up to the holiday weekend made it challenging for our patrons to not tear up the grounds.

Lake George Boat Rental opened for the season on Saturday of Memorial Day Weekend. The opening was much slower than is typical for the holiday. I attribute the lack of traffic to the overcast skies and cooler temps we had here that weekend. Boat rentals picked up significantly the following weekend with the clear skies and temps in the high 70's. Fingers crossed we continue to have great camping and boating weather on the weekends moving forward. Anglers are still reporting productive outings and the stripers are definitely still biting!

I have had some mechanical issues on a few pieces of equipment this month. I and staff were able to fix and resolve some of the issues, and other issues I needed to reach out to Ryan the mechanic over at Indian Bluff. He was able to steer me in the right direction and I was able to get the equipment up and running. It was very nice to have an asset like Ryan to call on when needed.

I will be spraying two fallow fields in preparation for prairie planting this fall/winter in the near future. These prairies are located just south of the horse arena and are currently fallow fields that I mow for thistle twice a year. The seed was provided by the River Action Committee for these two prairies and I am very thankful for their generosity! I look forward to seeing you all on Tuesday.

Forest Preserve District

Rock Island County

Our mission: is to maintain and acquire lands with the intent to restore and conserve such lands for the purpose of preservation, education, and recreation for its residents with fiscal responsibility.

Members of the Rock Island County Forest Preserve District Executive Committee, please accept this report to the Committee for the month of June 2025.

Notes or follow-up from the prior Forest Preserve Executive Committee Meeting

Nothing to report at this time.

Issues or Items noted on the agenda for the month of June

District Monthly Disbursements Claims

The monthly claims & Treasurer's Disbursements for the month enclosed are typical for this time of year. Bond payments and interest were made on time. There is a payment to the County Collector for property tax for a parcel within the Doyle Addition that was donated to the District. Claims were not fully reviewed at the time of this report; however, any marked claims will be rectified by staff.

Transfers of Appropriations

There are a lot of transfers required in the General Fund and Niabi Zoo Fund as the close of the fiscal year is a month away and funds are becoming limited in various GL's. Staff are tactically approaching operational needs and repairs with what remaining funds left in their departments budgets so that additional appropriations are not required.

Resolutions

Consider a Resolution for additional appropriation to be transferred to the Niabi Zoo Fund. Funds need to be appropriated and transferred as the zoo has no unencumbered funds.

Consider a Resolution for additional FY 25 appropriations from unappropriated funds. The surpluses in these gl's account for funds received and in order to meet the expenses of the big cat, eagle, rhino roof and snow damage project they needed to be appropriated to offset the expense.

Consider a Resolution for the Niabi Zoo Fund that addresses improvements to the Mixed Primate and Otter Exhibit Improvements. To offset these expenses the zoo was awarded a grant from the Woodward Community grant and Niabi Zoo Foundation.

Consider a resolution regarding the Bike Path Grant in the DFCI Fund. Expenses associated with the construction documents has come due. This is a reimbursable grant.

Consider a resolution regarding the installation of a cooling system for the Biodiversity building at Niabi Zoo. The offsetting expense for this improvement was provided by the Niabi Zoo Foundation.

Consider a Resolution for Niabi Zoo Improvements for ARPA Grant Appropriations as the first bill for the cathouse and eagle exhibits was received from Estes Construction.

Ordinances

Consider approving the District FY 26 Annual Budget and Appropriation Ordinances. An updated Schedule A and budget supporting the ordinances is included in the meeting materials. The overall strategy of the FY 26 is similar as prior years and that is to maintain the current level of services and maintaining fund balance position so future levy requests can be directed towards capital improvements i.e. roads, support facilities and zoological exhibits.

Budget notes

$50 increase to non-union staff requested

1.5% increase to union per bargaining unit collective agreement with step increases

5% increase for employee health benefit budgeted for calendar year 2026 and 2027

Funds for a to be determined temporary exhibit in the amount of $35,000 requested

$10,000 for domestic animal area fencing requested

$35,000 for a zoo vehicle requested

$20,000 for railroad track improvements requested

$10,000 for perimeter fence improvements requested

$200,000 match requested for Bike Path Grant for path improvements

$100,000 match requested for Electric Vehicle Grant for installation of charging stations

General Fund has 1% surplus budget

Niabi Zoo Fund has a $522,716 surplus budget in order to progressively bring the fund within District policy

IMRF Fund has a deficit and will use reserves beyond that of District policy

FISSA Fund has a surplus 2.5% surplus to keep the fund balance within policy

Liability Fund has a significant deficit budget in which reserves will be needed. The District has pending litigation and a pending worker's compensation claim. IPARKS is changing the billing from the currently revolving year to calendar year. Funds are requested for August 1 to December 31, 2025 and then calendar year 2026 due January 1, 2026.

Audit Fund has a 1% surplus budget to build fund balance as cost increases for this mandate continue to rise beyond the norm of prior years.

Staff will continue to rely on partnerships and local grants for improvements throughout the District. When and if received, the appropriations will be presented to the Commission through resolutions. Staff will begin preliminary FY 27 budget work in August that will support property tax levies to be considered in October or November.

Other Business noted on the Executive Committee Agenda

Consider purchase of Ford F150 from Morrow Brothers Ford in the amount of $43,673 for Loud Thunder Forest Preserve. Funds were appropriated in the FY 25 budget. The quote in the meeting materials is from the Illinois joint purchasing master contract.

Consider the purchase of four John Deere Z997. Funds were requested in the FY 26 budget and the mowers will be allocated to Illiniwek (2), Loud Thunder and Niabi Zoo. The zoo and Illiniwek will be trading mowers in with this purchase as they are at the end of life.

Consider bids for the Great River Trail Project. Bids will be present at committee for discussion and review. The project plans are included in the meeting materials.

Consider Actuarial Services for the GASB 75 Reporting. The District will be accepting proposals until Friday, June 6, 2025. Staff will provide a recommendation to the committee at the time of the meeting.

Consider the Mindfire Communications Inc. Agreement for services. The agreement covers the District's FY 26 operations within the General Fund only. Most of the costs are associated with managing the District's social media sites. Using social media is the most cost-effective advertisement and promotion of the District's services and mission. The District's website and Indian Bluff website need several upgrades since they were last updated in 2018. The zoo, as the Zoo Director deems it necessary, will contract with Mindfire Communications Inc. for the strategic benefits of the zoo's needs.

Consider approval of the update to the District Park Plan.

Consider an amendment to the Zoo Director's employment agreement. The amendment increases the Zoo Director's salary from $127,233.60 to $128,891.60 beginning July 1, 2025.

Facility Usage throughout the District

May was a fairly mild month with only one large rain event that slowed things down throughout the District for a day or two. Temperatures were mild allowing plenty of opportunities for folks to recreate and explore what the parks have to offer. Golf and camping numbers were solid and the zoo's attendance dropped from last year's comparison but revenues jumped since prior pricing was reinstated. Memorial Day Weekend unlike last year was a tremendous weekend with campgrounds at capacity, lots of rounds of golf and a steady stream of visitors to the zoo. River levels have limited staff's ability to put the Mississippi River docks in place for public usage. The boat rental at Loud Thunder got off to a slow start on Memorial Day Weekend even with a full campground which was kind a peculiar. Trails were closed to horses and bikers off and on but generally available for the most of the month. Fishing and boating has started to increase on Lake George and fishing has been spotty depending on the day. Many of the District's prairies are starting to bloom as well with Foxglove Beardtongue currently in full bloom, so it's a great time to visit and take in what the native wildlife has to offer. Also, Yellow Sweet Clover is beginning to bloom, while invasive, those nonnative honeybees love it and it makes for great honey.

Staff throughout the District are busy with seasonal operations, please take note of staff reports as they go into greater detail about what transpired throughout the month of May at their facilities.

Zoo Foundation

The next meeting of the Zoo Foundation is June 10th at Niabi Zoo.

Union

No grievances were filed by the union for the month of May.

Items of note for the Current Month

- Received notification from the IL Dept. of Commerce and Economic Opportunity that Niabi Zoo is to begin the application for $800,000 in state funds for improvements to the zoo. The process takes 9 months to a year to complete.
- Estes Construction and the subcontractors continue to work on the big cat and eagle exhibits. The big cat enclosure is expected to be completed in June. The bill for the month of May is $280,013.59 leaving a balance of $391,270.88. Currently there is enough cash within the zoo fund to meet this obligation and all other monthly obligations.

- Conducted several short Lake George fishery inspections, crappie season was slow assumedly due to the mild temperatures, however some were caught and inspected.
- Utilized a PTO day on May 27th.
- The next big summer holiday is July 4th. The Loud Thunder Boat Rental will be open.
